LEGISLATIVE NEWS

LPCC Supports Artistic Bike Rack Ordinance

The LPCC supports Alderman Vi Daley's (43rd) ordinance to bring artistic bike racks to Chicago as it would provide an enhanced shopping experience, added public art and more projects for local artisans. The ordinance will be

LPCC Supports Mobile Food Trucks in Chicago

The concept of Mobile Food Trucks is a culinary style in place in dozens of major U.S. cities. A proposed ordinance, supported by Lincoln Park Aldermen Vi Daley and Scott Waguespack (32nd), would bring warm, cooked meals to the streets of Chicago in a responsible, safe and healthy fashion. Not only would the food scene in Chicago be further enhanced, the ordinance would help spur new businesses and job creation.

Business Parking Meeting

In an effort to ease the burden of parking on local business owners in Chicago, the LPCC is working with Aldermen Vi Daley, Scott Waguespack and Tom Tunney (44th) as well as the Department of Law, the City Clerk of Chicago, LAZ Parking and the Lakeview Chamber of Commerce to develop parking policies that benefit businesses and their customers. Stay tuned for more information on these monumental efforts.
